

Welcome to OktoberFest! Our annual OktoberFest polkas into our Narthex after today’s 11am service. No tickets required—all are welcome! Join friends for food, fun and faith-filled joy!

Our work to reflect God’s love operates among financial realities, and within those realities we care called to Ministry Growing Community. Please pick up a letter today that asks for our prayerful consideration of financial support of our ministry in 2027; Estimate of Giving cards help us plan for the good we share in Jesus’ name for the sake of the world as we’ll find it in the coming year. Cards can be returned by Nov 1. Thank you!

Ministry Growing Community: I contribute to our general ministry fund at St Mark because I feel hopeful and excited about our commitment (with Jesus’ love!) to the children and youth from our congregation who are welcomed here, and to young people meeting here through the week with Family Focus, Preschool, Scouting and other community groups. I value this “Ministry Growing Community” because I believe young people in Christ’s church and in our neighborhoods need safe spaces to gather and grow, and St Mark opens and lights up God’s physical house to be a shared community home! My support for “Ministry Growing Community” at St Mark helps me nurture the spiritual gifts of kindness and gentleness in my life. —Pastor Joel, part of St Mark since 2014

Last Week’s Annual Gathering of the Ministerium called our Virginia Synod clergy into a three-day period of worship, study, fellowship and churchwide updates. While there, showing our interconnected life in Christ, Pastor Joel was asked on Tuesday morning by a pastor from north of Richmond if he’d happened to have packed a home visitation communion kit; it turned out that a nearly 100-year-old member of this pastor’s congregation had recently moved to Virginia Beach for hospice care closer to family and she was now in her final days. And Pastor Joel did have a communion kit with him: in fact, Pastor Joel had silver communion ware that our member, the retired Rev Art Pedersen, has shared for continued use in eucharistic ministry. So Pastor Pedersen’s tools were passed through Pastor Joel for a neighbor pastor to bring Christ to a sister we now remember among the saints. ☺

Joyful Generosity (Pink Envelopes): This month’s special offering will be given to the District 7 of the Little League Challenger Division. The Challenger Division is an inclusive baseball program for mentally & physically challenged youth. Pink envelopes are outside our sanctuary doors. Last month we collected $1,433 to support Lutheran Disaster Response (LDR) after flooding across Nepal in August. Thank you!! ☺

SMLC: Spirituality Makes Life Creative! Music fills worship: hymns, psalms, preludes, postludes; our organ echos from last week’s Sine Nomine concert; the brass band is tuning up for OktoberFest excitement. How does music stir your spirit? How does your spirituality resonate with sounds to tie you with God? What do you hear at SMLC worth sharing?

2027 Giving Envelopes: If you would like paper offering envelopes for 2027, please contact Amanda in the office and she will be glad to set that up for you. Or please let Amanda know if you no longer need paper envelopes. This helps us be good stewards of church resources by ordering only the number of envelopes truly needed. Thank you for your continued generosity and support of our church’s ministry!
