Red Apples & Reformation Sunday: According to legend, Martin Luther looked to the future with hope in Christ and said, “Even if I knew the world were going to end tomorrow, I would still plant an apple tree today.” As we celebrate our Reformation today (and we traditionally wear red today in honor of the Holy Spirit) we’re enjoying a festive red apple-themed coffee hour featuring a caramel/chocolate apple bar; warm and cold cider; and other apple treats. Let’s all share in a bold faith in a bold grace in a bold future in the bold love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord!

Ministry Growing Community: I contribute to our general ministry fund at St Mark because I feel joy, hope and spiritual fulfillment in our Confirming Connections and the youth who can grow in their knowledge and love of Christ in a safe and nurturing environment. I value this way of “Ministry Growing Community” because it offers a welcoming sanctuary to all people from a variety of diverse backgrounds. My support for “Ministry Growing Community” at St Mark helps me nurture the spiritual gifts of faithfulness and gentleness in my own life. —Council First Vice President Cody Watson, part of St Mark since 2017 + + + To plan for Ministry Growing Community in 2027, purple Estimate of Giving are outside the sanctuary doors and on the narthex where cards can be returned (by next Sunday, Nov 1, please). Thank you!

Confirming Connections Meets Today from 12:15-1:30pm in our Conference Room. Our graphic novel “Word for Word Bible Comic” presentation of the Book of Ruth arrived last week and we have a copy for you to pick up today! (Our confirmands are exploring the Old Testament books of Ruth and Jonah this year. A Christian artist in Great Britain has paired the full text of the NIV translation with historically researched graphics to help these ancient sacred stories share and build faith today.)

For All the Saints: Our annual festival to celebrate the saints is Sunday, November 1. To remember saints who have died since November 1, 2025, please add their names to the roster on our kiosk for us to speak their names aloud this year.

Next Sunday’s Special Congregational Meeting will be an especially joyful one, filled with good news and celebration for our legacy of worship at St Mark as we launch new songs and prayers into the future. Come between services to learn more!

SMLC: Spirituality Makes Life Creative! To all the liturgical artists who prep the paraments & set the sanctuary: thank you!

Prepare the Way! When our preschool asks how it can gift our congregation for the partnership we share, our council has said re-investing in students’ needs is a great way to celebrate our shared love for God’s children! This fall the preschool will pave the sidewalk to its dedicated entrance to match our campus’ exposed aggregate walkways. This will helps students and families walk more safely to preschool in all types of weather. Welcoming children welcomes Christ (Matthew 25)!

Joyful Generosity (Pink Envelopes): This we collect for Little League Challenger Division District 7. Trough sports, the Challenger Division supports youth with mental & physical challenges. Pink envelopes are outside the sanctuary doors.

Operation Christmas Child is one way to extend our love to children across the globe. Fill a box with small gifts for a boy or girl. Boxes are shipped to more than 100 countries, along with material from Franklin Graham’s Samaritans’ Purse to tell recipients about Jesus Christ. Please return boxes by Nov 18.
